

Guess what has arrived in the mail for the students of JAAGO from Playmobil today?

JAAGO Foundation is a civil society organization in Bangladesh, established in April 2007. JAAGO operates with the help of its employees and volunteer platform, 'Volunteer for Bangladesh' to work towards the betterment of the people living below the poverty line.

Since 1974, PLAYMOBIL toys, created by Hans Beck, have become a classic throughout children's playrooms, with play themes ranging from a knight's castle to a sunny vacation hotel. Approximately 2.7 billion of the beloved play figures with the iconic smile have been produced since then, sparking imaginative play for children all over the world.

Around 30 different play themes are distributed in more than 100 countries worldwide. Take a look at the ecstatic faces of the children after the toys were unveiled! Their excitement and joy went strong even after hours of playing with these super innovative toys! Thank you Playmobil!
